

International Women's Day - March 2, 2009

A group picture of the women soldiers that were honored on the occasion of the International Women's Day by the Institute for Women's Studies in the Arab World (IWSAW-LAU).

On the occasion of the International Women's Day, the Institute for Women's Studies in the Arab World (IWSAW) at the Lebanese American University (LAU) celebrated by honoring women in the Lebanese Army. After a short military parade on the Beirut campus, a number of speeches were given commending the role of women soldiers. Representative of the Commander of the Lebanese Army Colonel Ghassan Gharzeddine, representative of the Director General of the Internal Security Forces Captain Diala Al Muhtar, and representative of the Director General of the General Security Colonel Raymonda Fares participated in the event. An exchange of trophies followed.

From left to right: Colonel Ghassan Gharzeddine, Dr. Joseph Jabbra, and Dr. Dima Dabbous-Sensenig