

DOCUMENTS OF ARAB CONFERENCES AND WORKSHOPS ABOUT WOMEN

Many conferences and workshops about women have taken place in the Arab World during the past three years . Being aware of the importance of collecting these documents and having them available in our Center for readers and researchers, the Institute requests from all the organizers of conferences on women to send to it all source materials and documents .

The following are the names of conferences and workshops of which all source materials and documents are available at our Documentation Center :
